: ORDER ADMITTING
: DANIEL J. O'NEILL and
: THOMAS E. RILEY PRO HAC VICE

THIS MATTER having been opened to the court by Slattery & Jespersen, P.C., attorneys for defendant, Brown & Williamson Tobacco Corporation, individually and as successor by merger to The American Tobacco Company ("Brown & Williamson"), on application for an Order granting admission pro hac vice of Daniel J. O'Neill and Thomas E. Riley, and the court having considered the application, and the Certifications of Daniel J. O'Neill, Thomas E. Riley and William C. Slattery filed in support, and compliance with R. 1:21-2 having been shown;

IT IS on this 8th day of March, 2002, ORDERED that Daniel J. O'Neill and Thomas E. Riley are admitted pro hac vice so long as they comply with the following requirements:

1. They shall abide by the Rules Governing the Courts of the State of New Jersey, including all disciplinary rules.

2. They shall consent to the appointment of the Clerk of the Supreme Court as an agent upon whom service of process may be made for all actions against them or their firm that may arise out of their participation in this matter.

3. They shall notify the court immediately of any matter affecting their standing at the bar of any other court.

4. They shall have all pleadings, briefs and other papers filed with the court signed by Slattery & Jespersen, P.C., attorneys of record for Brown & Williamson, who are duly authorized to practice in this State, and who shall be held responsible for them and the conduct of the cause.

5. They may not be designated as trial counsel.
6. No delay in discovery, motions, trial or any other proceeding shall occur or be requested by reason of their inability to be in attendance.
7. They shall pay the fees required by R. 1:20-1(b) and R. 1:28-2 within ten (10) days of receipt of this Order and shall submit an affidavit of compliance.
8. Proof of such payment, after filing proof of the initial payment, shall be made by certification to the Court no later than February 15th of each year.
9. Automatic termination of pro hac vice admission will occur for failure to make these required annual payments to the Oversight Committee and the NJ Lawyers Fund for Client Protection.
10. Noncompliance with any of the foregoing requirements shall constitute grounds for termination of pro hac vice admission.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that a copy of this Order shall be served on all liaison counsel within seven (7) days of the date hereof.
